

Franklin Conference on the Future of Europe: Euroland: Global Player or Global Drag?

Franklin College Switzerland, Lugano, 2-4 March 2006

Scientific Committee: J. Bibow and A. Terzi, Franklin College Switzerland

Sponsors: Julius Baer Bank, Fingroup Financial Management & Consulting

Program

Thursday, March 2nd: 17:30 Van transportation from the Hotel de la Paix
18:00 Opening public lecture
 Introduction
 Keynote speech by Charles Goodhart
 Questions and Answers
19:30 Reception

Van transportation to Hotel followed by Dinner (Restaurant Barilotto, by the Hotel)

Friday, March 3rd:

Session I: Arestis, Creel, Truger, Sardoni

9:00 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

13-14:00 Lunch

Session II: Forder, Bibow, Flassbeck, Izurieta

14:30 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

16:20 Coffee break

16:40 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

18:30 End of session

Van transportation to Hotel

20:00 Van transportation to restaurant (Grotto al Bosco) for Dinner

Saturday, March 4th:

Session III: Werner, Bellofiore, Rossi, Terzi

9:00 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 Presentation of papers (30' each) and discussion

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Conference ends

Conference participants

NAME	AFFILIATION	TITLE	EMAIL
Charles Goodhart	Professor emeritus, London School of Economics	Keynote speaker: The euro and the reform of the stability and growth pact	caegoodhart@aol.com
Philip Arestis	University of Cambridge and Levy Economic Institute, Bard College	Can the Eurozone play a stabilizing role in balancing global imbalances?	pa267@hermes.cam.ac.uk
Riccardo Bellofiore	Università di Bergamo	Prospects and limits of Keynesianism in Europe	riccardo.bellofiore@unibg.it
Jörg Bibow	Franklin College Switzerland	Global imbalances, Bretton Woods II, and the role of the Eurozone	jbibow@fc.edu
Jerome Creel	Observatoire Français des Conjonctures Économiques, Fondation Nationale des Sciences Politiques	The euro as a pact (with Fabrice Capoen)	jerome.creel@sciences-po.fr
Heiner Flassbeck	UNCTAD, Macroeconomic and Development Policies Branch, and Honorary Professor, Hamburg University for Economics and Politics	Global imbalances and the European response	heiner.flassbeck@unctad.org
James Forder	University of Oxford	The idea of 'policy co-ordination' and the European monetary union	james.forder@balliol.oxford.ac.uk
Alex Izurieta	CERF, Judge Institute, University of Cambridge	The world economy, US and Europe: Stylized facts, sustainability and scenarios (with George Irvin)	a.izurieta@cerf.cam.ac.uk
Sergio Rossi	University of Fribourg	The role of the euro in the international monetary arena: present and prospects	sergio.rossi@unifr.ch
Claudio Sardoni	University of Rome "La Sapienza"	The economic rationale of the EMU and the ECB	claudio.sardoni@uniroma1.it
Andrea Terzi	Franklin College Switzerland	The Eurozone in the global economy: Price stability is not enough and macro governance institutions are needed	aterzi@fc.edu
Achim Truger	Institut für Makroökonomie und Konjunkturforschung (IKM), Düsseldorf	Fiscal Policy and Macroeconomic Performance in the EMU: Lessons for the Future (with Eckhard Hein)	achim-truger@boeckler.de
Richard Werner	University of Southampton	Europe's choice and lessons from Japan: Supply vs. demand side policy, fiscal vs. monetary policy	r.werner@soton.ac.uk