

use your economics

FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE!

Tired of learning economics that seems more interested in justifying the status quo, than in explaining the real world
– and changing it?

Then join thousands of economics students around the world:
put your economics to work in the cause of social change.

PROGRESSIVE ECONOMICS FORUM ANNUAL STUDENT ESSAY CONTEST

PRIZES | $1000: Top Graduate Essay
$500: Top Undergraduate Essay

Prizes will be awarded to an essay of 20-40 pages double-spaced (5,000-10,000 words) on any subject related to the theory or policy of economics or political-economy, which best reflects a critical approach to the functioning, efficiency, and social and environmental consequences of unconstrained markets.

Deadline For Applications: May 1, 2006

Mail 4 Copies of Your Essay to:
Progressive Economics Forum,
Student Essay Contest,
c/o 1400-207 West Hastings St.
Vancouver, BC V6B 1H7

www.web.ca/~pef

All entrants receive a complimentary
1-year membership in the Progressive Economics Forum.

Judges' decisions are final.