Historical, Philosophical and Heterodox Perspectives in Economics Journals

To view an online sample copy go to: www.tandf.co.uk/journals/onlinesamples.asp
Dear Reader,

Welcome to the 2007 Routledge Historical, Philosophical and Heterodox Perspectives in Economics Journals brochure. This is the first year we have decided to produce a cluster brochure to encompass our titles under this subject area. The brochure includes journals that we publish within this subject area as well as a few books of related interest.

Exciting new developments within the area this year include The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought being accepted into the ISI Social Sciences Citation Index and The Feminist Economics Impact Factor increasing to 1.167 with a ranking of 35/175 in the economics category in the 2005 Journal Citation Reports.

We hope that you find the new brochure useful.

Regards,

Nicola McArthur

The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought
Editors: José Luís Cardoso, Universidade Técnica de Lisboa, Portugal
Gilbert Faccarello, Université Panthéon-Assas, France
Heinz D. Kurz, Karl Franzens-Universität, Austria
Antoin E. Murphy, Trinity College, Ireland

Volume 14, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0967-2567   Online ISSN 1469-5936

This peer-reviewed journal, has quickly established itself as a leading forum for lively discussion on a wide range of issues in the history of economic thought. With contributions from both established international scholars and younger academics, EJHET is entirely pluralist and non-partisan with regard to subjects and methodologies – it does not subscribe to any particular current of thought, nor relate to any one geographic zone.
Feminist Economics
The Journal of the International Association for Feminist Economics (IAFFE)

Editor: Diana Strassmann, Rice University, USA

Volume 13, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1354-5701 Online ISSN 1466-4372

Feminist Economics is a peer-reviewed journal that provides an open forum for dialogue and debate about feminist economic perspectives. By opening new areas of economic inquiry, welcoming diverse voices, and encouraging critical exchanges, the journal enlarges and enriches economic discourse. The goal of Feminist Economics is not just to develop more illuminating theories, but to improve the conditions of living for all children, women, and men.

International Review of Applied Economics

Editor: Malcolm Sawyer, University of Leeds, UK

Volume 21, 2007, 5 issues per year
Print ISSN 0269-2171 Online ISSN 1465-3486

International Review of Applied Economics is devoted to the practical applications of economic ideas. Applied economics is widely interpreted to embrace empirical work and the application of economics to the evaluation and development of economic policies. The interaction between empirical work and economic policy is an important feature of the journal. Although the International Review of Applied Economics associates itself broadly with the non-neo-classical tradition, it does not identify itself with any specific theoretical or political position.

The Journal of Economic Methodology
The Journal of the International Network for Economic Method (INEM)

Editors: D. Wade Hands, University of Puget Sound, USA
John B. Davis, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands and Marquette University, USA

Volume 14, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1350-178X Online ISSN 1469-9427

The Journal of Economic Methodology is a valuable forum which publishes the most current and exciting work in the broad field of economic methodology. The Journal of Economic Methodology addresses issues such as:

- Methodological analysis of the theory and practice of contemporary economics
- Analysis of the methodological implications of new developments in economic theory and practice
- The methodological writings and practice of earlier economic theorists (mainstream or heterodox)
- Research in the philosophical foundations of economics
- Studies in the rhetoric, sociology, or economics of economics

Peer-reviewed articles form the core of the journal. It also features mini-symposia on controversial issues. The Book Review section offers substantial reviews of key titles, and a Notes and Information section will enable the subscriber to stay up to date and fully informed of international events and developments in the field.

Journal of the History of Economic Thought

The Journal of the History of Economics Society (HES)

Editor: Steven G. Medema, University of Colorado at Denver, USA

Volume 29, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 1042-7716 Online ISSN 1469-9656

The Journal of the History of Economic Thought (JHET) is the Journal of the History of Economics Society. JHET is a quarterly, refereed journal and welcomes papers that reflect the full spectrum of scholarly analysis within the history of economic thought. The Journal also features a regular Book Review section, which includes reviews by leading specialists.

Rethinking Marxism
Editor: David F. Ruccio, University of Notre Dame, USA
Volume 19, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN: 0893-5696   Online ISSN: 1475-8059

The aim of RETHINKING MARXISM is to stimulate interest in and debate over the explanatory power and social consequences of Marxian economic, cultural, and social analysis. To that end, we publish studies that seek to discuss, elaborate, and/or extend Marxian theory. Our concerns include theoretical and philosophical (methodological and epistemological) matters as well as more concrete empirical analyses – all work that leads to the further development of distinctively Marxian discourses. We encourage contributions from people in many disciplines and from a wide range of perspectives. We are also interested in expanding the diversity of styles for producing and presenting Marxian discourses.

Review of Political Economy
Editors: Gary Mongiovi, St John’s University, USA
Steve Pressman, Monmouth University, USA
Volume 19, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0953-8259   Online ISSN 1465-3982

The Review of Political Economy is a peer-reviewed journal welcoming constructive and critical contributions in all areas of political economy, including the Post Keynesian, Sraffian, Marxian, Austrian and Institutionalist traditions. The Review publishes both theoretical and empirical research, and is also open to submissions in methodology, economic history and the history of economic thought that cast light on issues of contemporary relevance in political economy. Comments on articles published in the Review are encouraged.

Review of Social Economy
The Journal of the Association for Social Economics (ASE)
Editors: Wilfred Dolfsma, Corresponding Editor, Utrecht School of Economics and Maastricht University, The Netherlands
Deborah M. Figart, The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, USA
Robert McMaster, University of Aberdeen, UK
Martha Starr, American University, Washington DC, USA
Volume 65, 2007, 4 issues per year
Print ISSN 0034-6764   Online ISSN 1470-1162

For over sixty years the Review of Social Economy has published high quality peer-reviewed papers on the many relationships between social values and economics. Among the subjects addressed are income distribution, justice and equity, poverty, cooperation, human dignity, labour, workplace organization, gender, need, the environment, economic institutions, economics methodology and class.
