JOIN US IN CONVERSATION

Continuing its ambitious efforts to promote models of collaboration, tripartism and genuine dialogue we ask you to participate in a conversation about contemporary relationships at work.

This will be an interactive format designed to capture your insights and expertise about the role of international standards, the nature of a future national system and the challenges of workplace implementation of a rights framework.

A keynote speech setting the global parameters will be given by Dr Guy Standing.

Conversation leaders will include Paul Munro and Barbara Pocock.

Recognised experts will be available to make comment and answer questions.

Wednesday 5 September 2007
2.30 - 6.30pm Jasper Hotel
489 Elizabeth Street Melbourne

LAUNCH THE BOOK

Julia Gillard Deputy Leader of the Opposition and Shadow Minister for Employment and Industrial Relations, Social Inclusion will launch the AIER's new book.

Australian Charter of Employment Rights

A template for fairness at work.

Edited by Mordy Bromberg & Mark Irving
